Curriculum Vitae

First and second name: Vladimir Miklič
Date of birth: 7.04.1965.
Place of birth: Bačka Palanka, Serbia

Addresses
Office: Institute of Field and Vegetable Crops, Oil Crops Department, Maksima Gorkog 30, 21000 Novi Sad, Serbia
Telephone: +381 21 4898 195
Fax: +381 21 4898 131
E-mail: vladimir.miklic@ifvcns.ns.ac.rs

Degrees
BSc: Field and vegetable crops, 1989, Faculty of Agriculture, University of Novi Sad.
MSc: Enrolled in the MSc program on field and vegetable crops of the Faculty of Agriculture, University of Novi Sad, in 1989. Defended his MSc thesis titled: Effects of genotype and some climatic factors on visits by bees and other pollinators and pollination in sunflower in 1996.
PhD: defended his PhD thesis entitled: Effect of desiccation date on sunflower seed yield and quality, Faculty of Agriculture, University of Novi Sad in 2001.

Employment
1990-1996: Research Trainee, Oil Crops Department, IFVCNS.
1996-2002: Research Assistant, Oil Crops Department, IFVCNS.
2002-2007: Research Associate, Oil Crops Department, IFVCNS.
2007-2012: Senior Research Associate, Oil Crops Department, IFVCNS.
Since 2012: Principal Research Fellow, Oil Crops Department, IFVCNS.

2006-2015: Head of Oil Crops Department, IFVCNS, Serbia.
Since 2015: Assistant Director for Organization of Production, IFVCNS, Serbia.

International cooperation
In the period 1996-2000 he visited India on multiple occasions (staying there over two years in total) relating to the cooperation between Institute of Field and Vegetable Crops, Novi Sad and company Zuari Seeds Ltd. India monitoring seed production and winter sunflower generation and educating Indian experts in sunflower breeding and seed production. There were similar cooperation activities with seed company Asociacion de Cooperativas Argentinas where he spent over a year in total in the period 2001-2007. On two occasions he visited China, in 2004 and 2009, giving series of lectures at the institutes in Luoung and Baichenng. As a representative of the Institute he visited other institutes in Russia, Ukraine, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Turkey, Croatia, Argentina, China, Uzbekistan and India. As a representative of Serbia he took part in FAO Regional Consultation and Workshop on Seed Production held in Budapest, Hungary in 2009. He participated in many international conferences.

Memberships
- ISA – International Sunflower Association
- FAO Escorena – Sunflower Research Network
- Serbian Genetic Society
- Serbian Society of Plant Breeders and Seed Scientists
- Seed Association of Serbia

Editing
General Secretary of the Serbian Association of Plant Breeders and Seed Producers
Member of the Editorial Board for journal „Plant Breeding and Seed Production“
Associate editor for peer-reviewed journal „Field and Vegetable Crops Research“
Member of the Editorial Board for technical journal „Vojvođanski pčelar“
Member of the Editorial Board for Proceedings from the Apiarian Conference (published by Association of Apiarian Organizations of Vojvodina)
Member of the Editorial Board for Proceedings from the Oil Industry Conference „Production and Processing of Oil Crops“

Committees
Member of the Committee for doctoral dissertations and masters thesis, being a mentor he monitors the study and research activities of junior researchers at the Institute of Field and Vegetable crops, Novi Sad.

Sunflower hybrids released
Co-author of more than 50 sunflower hybrids, released for commercial production in Serbia, Ukraine, Russia, Slovakia, Romania, Moldavia.

Publications
Author or co-author more than 300 scientific papers.

Foreign languages
English, Russian,